Coinciding with the foundation's 34th anniversary of the EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES ARTISTS LIBRARY (BACE) created in Barcelona, Catalunya, Spain in 1986, the Museum of the Americas BACE's worldwide representative, and the collaboration of THE MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAS ARTISTS' LIBRARY, are editing the book titled "THE BEST FINE ARTISTS GOLDEN BOOK" with 107 participant artists representing Algeria, Argentina, Armenia, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Dubai, Ecuador, France, Germany, Guatemala, Hungary, Iceland, Israel, Italy, Latvia, Morocco, Mexico, Norway, Portugal, Puerto Rico, Russia, South Korea, Spain, Switzerland, The Netherlands, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay and Venezuela.

The participants have been selected with the assistance of art critics, BACE's Editor Carlos Giudicessi, all under the supervision of the Museum of the Americas Artworks' approval and selection has been a monumental task due to the large number of artists wishing to participate. Some of the artworks shown in the book belong to the MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAS PERMANENT COLLECTION (a fact which has been clearly indicated in the corresponding pages). The purpose of this publication is not only to show the artists' artworks but to promote them through the DIGITAL EDITION which is being sent to selected museums, galleries, art collectors, architects and designers in America, Asia and Europe by electronic mail. Later on the book's printed version will be mailed to all of them AS A GIFT so they can appreciate the extraordinary artworks of many important artists. Dubai Art Promotions will be responsible in part for the distribution. Many great and famous artists are showing their artworks in the book but it is interesting to mention the participation of a very young artist -11 years old - being Luisa Barabas from Hungary who in spite of being so young, her art has already gained internationally recognition. In this instance, I wished to mention her as an example to follow by young children with artistic aptitudes. In this occasion biographies are not being published . Due to several reasons, among them space availability plus the Editor having in mind the saying: "AN IMAGE IS WORTH A THOUSAN WORDS", biographies may be requested directly to the artists by contacting them through the electronic mail addresses shown in the book for each one of the artists.

On behalf of the Museum of the Americas Board of Directors and the Editor, I wish to thank all participants and specially those who are no longer with us to whom we dedicate this book.

Dr. Raúl M. Oyuela, A.FIAP, Director, Museum of the Americas
In Doral, Florida and Cypress, Texas, January, 2021

Coincidiendo con el 34o. aniversario de la creación de la BIBLIOTECA DE ARTISTAS DE LAS COMUNIDADES EUROPEAS (BACE) fundada en Barcelona, Catalunya, España, en 1986, el Museum of the Americas, representante mundial de la BACE y con la colaboración de MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAS ARTISTS LIBRARY edita este libro titulado "THE BEST FINE ARTISTS GOLDEN BOOK" con la participación de 109 artistas que representan a Alemania, Argelia, Argentina, Armenia, Australia, Austria, Bélgica, Bolivia, Brasil, Bulgaria, Canadá, Colombia, Corea del Sur, Cuba, Chile, Dubai, Ecuador, España, Estados Unidos, Francia, Guatemala, Hungría, Islandia, Israel, Italia, Latvia, Marruecos, México, Noruega, Países Bajos, Portugal, Puerto Rico, Reino Unido, República Dominicana, Rusia, Suiza, Uruguay y Venezuela.

Los participantes fueron seleccionados con la ayuda de críticos de arte, el Editor de la BACE, D. Carlos Giudicessi y la supervisión del Museum of the Americas a través de una árdua y larga labor ya que decenas de artistas enviaron sus obras para ser aprobadas y seleccionadas. Algunas de las obras pertenecen a la COLECCION PERMANENTE DEL MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAS (lo cual está señalado en las páginas que corresponde). El propósito de este libro no es solamente la ilustración de las obras sino nuestra intención de promoverlas a través de la EDICION DIGITAL enviada por correo electrónico a selectos museos, galerías, coleccionistas, arquitectos y decoradores de América, Asia y Europa quienes más tarde recibirán como REGALO un ejemplar impreso para que puedan apreciar las extraordinarias obras de estos importantes artistas. Parte de la distribución estará a cargo de International Art Promotions de Dubai.

Entre los participantes podemos destacar a grandes maestros y maestras así como a una artista de solamente 11 años de edad (Luisa Barabas de Hungría) que, pese a su corta edad, tiene una amplia trayectoria internacional. El Editor quiso ilustrar su obra como ejemplo para otros niños con inquietudes artísticas. Por varias razones, entre ellas el espacio, el Editor no publica las biografías que pueden solicitarse a los artistas en forma directa ya que cada uno de ellos publica direcciones electrónicas de contacto. Otra de las razones editoriales se basa en aquel refrán que dice "UNA IMAGEN VALE MAS QUE MIL PALABRAS".

En nombre de la Junta Directiva del Museum of the Americas y del Editor, quiero agradecer a todos los participantes y en especial a aquellos que ya no están con nosotros a quienes dedicamos este libro.

Dr. Raúl M. Oyuela, A.FIAP, Director, Museum of the Americas
